Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy which is the bloom from a peach which is rarely handled. The mien is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native American medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic, adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, "Lafayette" Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

KILLED BY A MANIAO.

Gustav F. O. Muller, for a time confined in an insane asylum, drew a revolver upon Policeman E. G. Dietz, at the junction of Main street and Fairfield avenue, Bridgeport, Conn., shortly before noon yesterday, and killed him. Turning around to the startled people on the sidewalk Muller discharged all the cartridges in his weapon, and then, with a shriek and flourishing the gun over his head, started on a run through Main street. One bullet hit Charles Doherty, wounding him seriously. Another missile felled Leopold Rago, a barber, and at the hospital later it was feared he would die. Muller aimed point blank at Policeman Charles Muscat, but missed. Officers started in pursuit of Muller, and after a long run captured him. Muller was taken to the police station and locked up, where he made the building resound with yells and shrieks for the Rockefeller and Vanderbilts to bail him out.

Muller, it is said by the police has been writing begging letters to members of the Vanderbilt family in New York, and the police had been asked to arrest him. He had been confined in the state asylum for the insane at Middletown, after he had sent threatening letters to President Roosevelt.

Complaint was made to the police last Saturday by President Alexander Hawley, of the Bridgeport Savings Bank, that Muller had been at the bank and had demanded $400,000.

CARNEGIE ON FUTURE LIFE.

Just before his departure from Santa Barbara, Cal., Monday, for Delemon, where he will spend a few days with his wife and daughter, Andrew Carnegie aired his ideas of the "future life." Gifford Pinchot and endowed newspapers.

"I highly disapprove of recent utterances upon the 'future life,'" he said, referring to a symposium by Henry James, W. D. Howells and others. "I was asked to contribute to that series, but I refused. My great teacher on that subject is Plato.

"Our duties lie in this world and the man who performs them here has nothing to fear hereafter. It is too bad to say anything to shatter the hope of man or woman who prays that their faith in the future life may be strengthened."

Mr. Carnegie doesn't anticipate any straining of relations between President Taft and Roosevelt as a result of the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy. He summed up his impression of the forester thus:

"Pinchot is well meaning, zealous, self-sacrificing—a fine type. We need more like him; but he is inclined to walk so straight sometimes as to lean over backwards. He does not seem to have much of the give-and-take."

Concerning endowed newspapers, he said he had considered the matter, but had dismissed it as he thought no one would care to read a subsidized journal.

"The element of personality in a paper," he asserted, "is too important. If I went into newspaper work I should both own and edit my own paper."

THE FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH AMENDMENTS.

That the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution were null and void was declared by a resolution introduced by Representative Sisson, of Mississippi, which directs the attorney general to submit the question to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Sisson's resolution recites that the journals of the Senate and House of the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses show that the two amendments, relating to the enfranchisement of the negro, were not adopted in the two houses by a two-thirds vote, and further that three-fourths of the several states did not ratify them as required by the constitution.

The attorney general is "ordered and directed" to submit the question of their validity to the Supreme Court and to file at the same time with the court copies of the journals of both houses of Congress and of the legislatures of the states which acted upon the matter.

Fifty years' experience of an Old Nurse Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving the child it relieves the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

ENGAGED BY WIRELESS.

That the wireless may be used for tenderer purposes than summoning help to a disabled ship became known in Chicago yesterday, when the engagement of Miss Louise Gaylord to Walter F. Dillingham of Honolulu was announced. Mr. Dillingham proposed and was accepted in Honolulu, while Miss Gaylord was miles away in mid-ocean. They had known each other for three days only.

Last September Mrs. Adams, wife of Dr. Charles Adams and sister of John J. Mitchell, president of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, left Chicago for a trip around the world, Miss Gaylord accompanying her.

The party reached Honolulu in October and remained but three days. While they were there Mr. Dillingham, who is a Harvard graduate, and the son of a missionary, was noticeably attentive to Miss Gaylord. After three days Mrs. Adams and party sailed for Japan. The ship had not cleared the harbor by many hours when the wireless operator got this message, addressed to Miss Gaylord:

"Will you be my wife?"—Dillingham. Miss Gaylord thought it over for a bit, then sent the one word:

"Yes."

STRIKE-BREAKERS SHOOT INTO CROWD.

Six persons, including a young girl, were wounded last night, by bullets fired by a party of strike breakers from a Philadelphia trolley car.

The stoning of cars was renewed last night along Frankford avenue, the principal thoroughfare in the mill district in the northeast.

A stone thrown by one of the crowd injured a strike-breaking motorman. Injuried at this a crowd of about fifteen of his comrades took out a car, all of the windows of which they broke with their clubs. As the car loaded with strike breakers armed with revolvers, sped down Frankford avenue, bullets were rained at the jeering crowd.

The Philadelphia textile manufacturers give warning that unless strikers return to work the mills will be closed Monday, to remain closed indefinitely. Many men who quit at the outset of the trouble are applying for reinstatement.

TO IMPROVE THE RACE.

Prof. W. E. Castle, of Harvard, who has startled scientists by his experiments with guinea pigs and rabbits in actual demonstration of the mendelian laws governing heredity, announced at a meeting of the Boston Scientific Society last night that he expects the breeding of the human species can be accomplished along scientific lines, and that characteristics may be determined in advance. The reproduction of the species, Prof. Castle said, is a chemical process, and can be governed as well as any chemical process now occurring in the laboratory. We have but to know the laws, he said, and then apply them, to produce the sort of human being desired, and the remaining step to be taken, he said, is a short one.
